

AFTER A PRIZE

Rushville Division of the Uniformed Rank K. of P.

Will Contest.

At The National Convention To Be Held at Louisville Next Month.

The Rushville company will attend its biennial convention of the Uniform Rank Knights of Pythias to be held in Louisville commencing August 15.

Major-General Carnahan of Indianapolis, who will have the guiding hand at all affairs of the Uniform Rank during the biennial has issued his general orders, containing a brief outline of the program for the meeting beginning August 15. He will be in command of the camp at Western Park, and will have charge of the general parade, which takes place Tuesday afternoon, August 16.

Ceremonies opening the biennial encampment and marking the dedication of the camp will take place at four o'clock Monday afternoon. The Supreme Lodge convention will also be called to order on Monday by Supreme Chancellor Tracy R. Bangs.

The general parade is the feature of Tuesday, the second day of the encampment.

Field inspection and review at the camp site have been announced for 9 o'clock Wednesday morning. At 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon will begin the drills at the Jockey Club Park starting with Class A. The first prize in this class is $1,500, the second $900, the third $700, and the fourth $600. It is open to all companies of the Uniform Rank. There will be several other classes but the competition in this one is expected to be the keenest.

The parade of the Korassans will be featured one night, and the Imp drill will occupy two nights of the biennial period. Interspersed with these events will be two grand balls, the band contests reception galore, and various band concerts.

The Rushville company which has attracted considerable attention and received much favorable comment for the press in cities they have visited recently will contest for the prize in class C which consists of companies mustered in since the biennial meeting in 1902. They are practicing every meeting night and under the leadership of Capt. Caldwell are doing fine.

The company here is composed of the following members: George H. Caldwell, Capt.; J. K. Jameson, First Lieut.; Fred R. Beale, Second Lieut.; G. E. Muire, Guard; Albert Miller, Sentinel; D. B. Stewart, Recorder; Frank Reynolds, Treasurer. J. R. Davis, Andy Pearce, J. E. Webb, John Kirkpatrick, Ed L. Beer, G. P. Hunt, R. P. Lakin, H. C. Wolverson, Jesse Cline, Tom Simpson, B. O. Simpson, W. L. Brown, Dr. Frank Green, Arthur Bird, E. W. Ball, W. F. Kenner, A. P. Waggoner, C. L. Heaston, Fred Cook, Bert Aldridge, Irvin Kinnear, A. E. Fleehart, T. L. Carter, Hugh Fleehart, W. A. Stockinger, Earl White, Grant Gregg, Elmer Readle, Harve Cowing, Chas. W. Worth, Chas. Hall, Elmer Griffith, W. M. McBride.

May Not Return.

M. Santos-Dumont has begun negotiations with manufacturers of silk balloon envelopes at Paris to repair his damaged dirigible balloon. He says his return to the United States or his abandonment of the St. Louis contest depends on the ability of the manufacturers to supply an envelope speedily.

Hancock-Marion District.

The Republican convention to select a candidate for joint representative for the counties of Hancock and Marion will be held in Greenfield Saturday, July 23rd. Hancock county has the big majority of delegates and so far as heard from there is only one candidate, the present representative, W. H. H. Rock, of Greenfield.

THE ELLIS CASE

Nothing Heard From The Minister or the Girl Who Disappeared.

Nothing whatever has been learned of the whereabouts of Rev. Ellis, the Quaker minister, or the young woman, Miss Slick, who disappeared on the same day. Circulars have been sent and posted all over the country describing the minister and which also says concerning the theory that the girl is with him, the following: "There might be a woman with him—tall, slender and rather good looking, age about twenty-five years, dark hair, large eyes, good style. A woman of this description left the same date and was seen in company with Mr. Ellis at noon that day."

UNDECIDED

Coroner Wright Does Not Feel Sufficiently Informed to Decide.

Whether Starbuck Woman's Death was Due to Murder or Suicide—Latter Theory Not Popular.

The coroner of Henry county does not feel sufficiently informed in the Starbuck case to say whether it is a case of murder or suicide.

The circumstances will to a certain extent bear out any of the theories heretofore advanced, but will prove none of them.

Gipe, the young man under arrest has not only made conflicting stories but false ones. His alibi is not clear. The improbability of the theory that Mrs. Starbuck was murdered by her husband becomes more evident each day. Tests will be made however to prove whether or not the woman's cries could be heard from the house or not. A very strong argument in the husband's favor is the fact that he allowed her to live. If he had committed the crime he would have run no risk of her regaining her reason and telling all.

The coroner is said to lean a little toward the suicide theory, but his views are not shared by the neighbors.

Many people, however, do not believe that the theory of the coroner is correct. Sheriff Christopher and Detective Curry, who have been working night and day on the mystery, say they do not believe that the woman first killed her child and then jumped into the well. They say that they have evidence which will conclusively show that the woman could not possibly have received the wounds which were found upon her face in any other way than at the hands of some assailant.

The accepted theory of a large portion of the people is that Mrs. Starbuck was seized with a sudden attack of puerperal insanity, which either caused a homicidal desire, or gave her the hallucination that some monster was after her child. She ran to the telephone to call for help; then she dropped the receiver, threw open the window, tore the mosquito bar from it, and, imagining she saw this monster, or perhaps a man outside, turned back, caught up her child, ran out of the south door and made for the old well, the first place that came to her frenzied mind, darted through the gates, and when she reached the well threw in the child and jumped in after it, and that her shrieks and screams were caused because she imagined this monster that she raved about had followed her.

Echo of Epidemic.

Another echo from the dread small-pox epidemic of 1902 at Knightstown is the filing in the Appellate Court of an appeal from the verdict of the Henry county jury giving Mrs. Pearl Homer $200 damages for losses and abuses suffered at the hands of the city authorities during the time when the dread disease held the Homer household in confinement and subjected them to inconveniences. She sued the city for $1500.

LOOKING FORWARD

To One of the Largest State Meetings Ever Held.

Arrangements for State Camp of P. O. S. of A. in this City August 9th Being Made.

A meeting of the Glenwood camp of the P. O. S. of A. was held at that place last night and was one of the best meetings of that order ever held in this part of the State.

The degree work scheduled for the meeting did not take place for the reason that the candidate failed to come.

The presence of all the State officers except two of the minor officials added greatly to the interest of the meeting.

Nearly all of them made short talks on the good of the order.

The State officers held a meeting at which arrangements were made for what is expected to be the largest and the best ever held in this State. The program and arrangements will be much the same as given in the Republican a few evenings ago.

An address of welcome will be delivered by John M. Stevens and will be followed by a reply from Brother Clodfeller of the Crawfordsville camp. The public will be invited to this part of the exercises which will be held in the hall.

On Monday evening, the evening before the State meeting, an important meeting of the local order will be held, and degree work and floor maneuvers will be exemplified by visiting teams. This meeting will be held in the new Poundstone hall at the corner of Third and Morgan, the other hall being too small for so large a team as the Indianapolis camp will bring.

Arrangements are also being made to feed the visiting members, probably with the ladies of the Christian church, but as this matter has not been decided upon, a definite announcement will appear later as well as a program or outline of the meeting.

Those of the State officers who were present last night were: State President, C. C. Munday, of Indianapolis; State Secretary, Sam D. Symmes, of Crawfordsville; State Treasurer, H. R. Mitchell, of Indianapolis; State Master of Forms, Isaac Miller, of this city, and State Vice President, J. F. Mapes, of Glenwood.

Toes Mashed.

John T. Brown, of Jeffersonville, who came here Thursday morning to get work on the interurban line while in an intoxicated condition, with two companions, attempted to hop an east bound C., H. & D. freight train directly in front of the passenger station yesterday afternoon about three o'clock and missing his hold fell under the train. He jerked his left leg out just in time to prevent its being cut off above the ankle and one of the wheels passed over his foot mashing the toes off that member. Brown succeeded in extricating himself and with the assistance of friends hobbled to a nearby express truck, where he awaited the arrival of Drs. Coleman and Parsons who had been summoned. They found it necessary to amputate part of Brown's foot and then dressed the injured member. Brown left this morning for his home in Jeffersonville.

WATER SUPPLY LOW

City Again in Danger of a Genuine Water Famine.

Owing to the dry weather this week the water in reservoir at the city water and light plant has been steadily decreasing for the last four or five days until there is only six feet of water left. The citizens have been drawing on the reservoir very heavily for street sprinkling and family use until the pressure is very low. Last night the pressure was so low that people sprinkling the streets were unable to get a pressure sufficient to do the work.

As the water now stands there is a sufficient amount to put out a fire and no danger is apprehended should a fire break out, but the people are asked to use the water sparingly so that enough water may be kept on hands in case of fire.

AFTER CHILD

Mrs. William Merrill of Connersville Comes After Her Daughter.

Mrs. William Merrill, of Connersville, came over this morning at 10:46 after her twelve-year-old daughter Bessie, who ran away from her home in that city yesterday morning.

Miss Bessie came to this city from Connersville and stopped with relatives on First street. She was missed by her mother who instituted a search for her.

With the help of Officer Gordon the girl was located and Mrs. Merrill came over today, got her daughter and took her back home.

Miss Merrill is said to have run away before and it has almost become a habit with her.

A CHARMED LIFE

Prof. John Baldwin's Career As a Balloonist.

Prof. John E. Baldwin, a well known aeronaut, has returned to his summer home at Dalton, a small village six miles north of Hagerstown, to spend a few weeks in much needed rest.

He has made more than 1,000 ascensions, and his daring feats in mid-air have thrilled vast audiences in every state of the union.

He introduced the popular feature of taking live animals up with him and causing them to descend safely in a little parachute. The realistic snowstorm is his invention and the aerial artillery battle was first exhibited by him.

The story of his first ascent is stranger than fiction. He had never seen a balloon ascension before he made his first attempt.

There was to be an agricultural fair at the little town of Dalton and Baldwin, a green country boy, secretly made up his mind to give a performance not described on the bills. He had saved some money and, without the knowledge of his parents, sent to a balloon manufacturer for one of the smallest bags with a parachute and naked trapeze attached, and when it arrived instructions came with it. When the balloon was taken to the fair grounds no one knew who was to make the ascent. Thousands of people crowded around the swaying balloon, which had been properly inflated.

When young Baldwin stepped forward, dressed in red tights with a silken sash about his waist, the astounded people cheered and many of them wept. His aged mother was frantic and pleaded with him to abandon the wild project. But he was not to be changed from his foolhardy purpose, and, giving the word to let go the ropes, he was jerked into the sky.

He was almost out of sight, really more than 10,000 feet high, when he pulled the ropes that released the parachute, and dropped with lightning swiftness toward the earth. It appeared that the parachute would never open, but finally it spread with a snap and then he began to drift, slowly settling to the earth. He says in all respects it was the most successful ascension he has ever made.

AT A STANDSTILL

Negotiations Looking to the Settlement of Packers' Strike Interrupted.

Both Sides to the Controversy Remain Firm in Their Original Determination.

Chicago, July 16.—Negotiations for peace in the stockyards strike are practically at a standstill today and the strike will continue until one side or the other abates something of the demands up to the present time.

Both sides are anxious for a peaceable settlement, but the stumbling block to a final adjustment is that neither side is prepared to allow the other to dictate the basis of the arbitration.

The packers considered Mr. Donnelly's reply to their proposition Thursday night, but it proved unsatisfactory, and the union officials were notified that it would be impossible to reach an agreement along the lines suggested by Mr. Donnelly. In their answer to Mr. Donnelly the packers declared themselves willing to arbitrate, but stipulated that the arbitration should include the entire scope of the strike and not be subject to restrictions or limitations of any kind. This communication of the packers was identical with the one sent by them to Mr. Donnelly on Thursday, and to which his counter proposition was a reply. With the reply of the packers was sent a note to Mr. Donnelly notifying him that if he desired another conference with them they would be pleased to meet him in another effort to reach a basis of arbitration.

The allied trades unions at the stockyards are becoming restless and unless a settlement is reached in the near future, they may decide to stop work in sympathy with the men already out. The members of the allied crafts at the yards in this city number between 14,000 and 15,000, and a majority of them belong to the union. A mass meeting of these men will be held tonight, when the question of their quitting work will be discussed.

The work in the packing plants in this city was continued today on a much larger scale than at any time since the strike has been declared. Many new men have been employed, among whom, it is said, are many skilled workmen, and the packers declare that they are doing better than they expected they would be able to do, at the time the old employees quit work. With the increase in the working force the packing houses are able to fill all orders and slaughtering is done on a sufficiently heavy scale to warrant some buying at the yards. The workmen who have taken the places of the strikers are not molested while in the yards, and as long as they continue at work the packers declare that a meat famine can be averted for many weeks.

Around the stockyards district the expressed opinion is that the strike will last well into next week. Commission men and traders who are generally in touch with the situation sent dispatches to shippers throughout the country advising them to hold their livestock until later and warning them especially to refrain from sending the usual heavy shipments on Monday morning.

Sifting Evidence.

Bedford, Ind., July 16.—The grand jury in the Schafer murder case continues to hear the testimony of witnesses. There is no sign of adjournment. The investigation is being conducted with great thoroughness, and there is hope that when the grand jury makes its final report to Judge Wilson the mystery surrounding the killing of the pretty Latin teacher will be cleared away. William Cook, who found the dead body in his cab shed, was before the grand jury for a long time, and he gave the jury a definite idea of the surroundings of the shed where the body of the murdered girl was found. Coroner Plummer was closeted with the grand jury for several hours. The rumor that a new man, of this city, is under suspicion, is not confirmed by the officials.

An attempt is being made in Vienna, Austria, to persuade servants to pay twenty cents a month toward an old-age insurance; but after three years of work the sum needed to start the enterprise has not been secured.

Ants Do Good Work.

O. F. Cook, the discoverer of the Guatemalan boll weevil-eating ants, has wired the Department of Agriculture from Texas that the new ants are destroying cotton boll worms and are attacking similar injurious insects with even greater avidity than they do the boll weevil. Mr. Cook reports that the agricultural value of the ants now depends chiefly upon acclimatization and rapidity of propagation. They do not injure the crops at all.

At Connersville tomorrow.
Greensburg will be here Monday and Tuesday.

The Shelbyville team is undergoing another organization.

A team never plays real winning ball unless it is supported by its home people.

Greensburg won both games from New Bremen but not by as large scores as Rushville, our team having made five runs in each game.

HOW THEY STAND.

Clubs	Played	Won	Lost	Pct.
Rushville	32	24	8	.750
Connersville	16	12	4	.750
New Castle	4	3	1	.750
Greensburg	29	21	8	.724
Greenfield	17	9	8	.529
North Vernon	14	7	7	.500
Shelbyville	13	6	7	.461
Richmond	7	3	4	.428

NOTES.

In our figures last Saturday a mistake was made. Rushville's per cent. should have been .734, making Connersville first and Rushville second with Greensburg third.

As it is now the most important game tomorrow will be played between Rushville and Connersville as those two teams are now tied for first place. New Castle, of course, is winning the same per cent. of her games but they have not played as many games as Rushville and Connersville.

The game tomorrow between Rushville and Connersville will decide who is to hold first place for the next week or so at least.

The games scheduled for Sunday are:

Rushville vs. Connersville at Connersville.

Greenfield vs. New Bremen (O) at Greenfield.

Greensburg vs. Shelbyville at Greensburg.

New Castle vs. Richmond at Richmond.

North Vernon vs. Cincinnati.

North Vernon is playing New Bremen, O., today.

Shelbyville will play New Bremen on Monday.

Richmond will play at Liberty on Thursday.

Greensburg is playing Franklin today.

SOME PLAIN FACTS

The Republican Record in the Matter of Trusts.

(New York World, Dem.)

1. The anti-trust law was framed by a Republican, was passed by a Republican house and a Republican senate, was signed by a Republican president.

2. The law remained a dead letter on the statute books during the entire second term of Grover Cleveland, a Democratic president. Through those four years of Democratic administration all appeals and all efforts of the World to have the law enforced were met with sneers, jeers and open contempt from a Democratic attorney general, Richard Olney, who pretended that the law was unconstitutional, and who would do nothing toward prosecuting violators of it.

3. The first effort to enforce the law was made by Theodore Roosevelt, a Republican president. The first attorney general to vigorously prosecute offenders and to test the law was a Republican attorney general, Philander C. Knox.

4. The decision of the supreme court of the United States, given as a finality from which there is no appeal, upholding the law as perfectly constitutional and absolutely impregnable in every respect, as the World for twelve years constantly insisted, was due to five judges, every one of whom is a Republican.

5. The dissenting minority of the court included every Democratic judge of that tribunal, to-wit: Chief Justice Fuller of Illinois, Mr. Justice White of Louisiana, and Mr. Justice Peckham of New York. All these distinguished Democrats not only voted against the constitutionality of the law, but denounced it as a danger to the republic.

6. Under these circumstances it does not seem probable that the Democrats can make great capital in seeking to monopolize the anti-trust issue and charging the Republican party with the crime of being owned body and soul by the trusts.

It is as well to record some plain truths, however unpleasant or surprising.

The Democratic national platform declares that our tariff system has caused our infant industries "to become the greatest combinations of capital the world has ever known." And this growth of American industries is a grievance to Democratic leadership!

The answer to Democratic profession as set forth in the St. Louis platform is Democratic performance under the same leadership which wrote that platform when it was in control of national affairs from March, 1893, to March, 1897.

Whenever a German Emperor undertakes

BIG CALL FOR SPEAKERS

Indiana Republicans Want Lots of Oratory in This Campaign.

Indianapolis, July 16.—It is not very probable that Senator Fairbanks will spend much time this campaign making speeches in Indiana. His presence will be missed by the Republicans, as he has been one of their mainstays in former campaigns. But it is realized by the party leaders that he has a wider field to cover this time and therefore that they cannot reasonably expect so much from him. As the vice presidential nominee he will probably be sent for a tour of the country on a special train. Chairman C. C. Lyons of the speakers' bureau of the state committee said today that it is not very probable that a tour of the state on a special train will be arranged for him, but he will make a number of speeches in Indiana. It is very probable that he will open the campaign here before starting on his big swing around the circle. Lyons said there is already an enormous demand for speakers and that he has had a surprising number of calls for such men as Senator Fairbanks and Senator Beveridge, J. Frank Hanly, John L. Griffiths and others who have taken a very active part in the Republican campaigns. Lyons said it is very probable that the speaking campaign will be opened about the middle of September unless there is a change in the plans.

The old prejudice against Indianapolis is coming to the top since the talk of Harry S. New for the United States senate was started. It is conceded that New is one of the most popular men in the state and that he will be a factor in the race if he enters, yet there is already an undercurrent of protest because he resides in Indianapolis. One well known state politician who was here today remarked with fine sarcasm that New should have the place so that Indianapolis might be credited with the two senators and the vice president. His meaning was so obvious that no questions were necessary. It simply indicated that there is a feeling that if Indianapolis gets one of the senators and the vice president that it should be satisfied without attempting to "hog the whole thing." There is a movement now to instruct the Marion county members to vote for New, but it will probably not go through, as Addison C. Harris and John L. Griffiths, of this city, are also being considered as prospective candidates.

Arrangements are now being made for the third annual basket dinner of the Republican editors of Indiana at Broad Ripple park, near here. The date has not been definitely determined, but it will be either the 18th or 26th of August. These affairs have proved very enjoyable, and are looked forward to with much pleasure by those who are fortunate enough to receive invitations. They also have a political significance as many of the party leaders are represented. This time invitations will probably be extended to all the candidates on the state ticket as well as the state officials and others in position of party leadership. The occasion is expected to prove one of the most enjoyable of the kind yet held.

A spirited fight is going on here for control of the Republican delegation to the next legislature. The county is entitled to three senators and seven members of the house, in addition to being joined with Hancock for a representative and with Morgan for a senator. Hence it is obvious that there should be a big contest for control in view of the vacancy that will arise in the senate if Senator Fairbanks is elected vice president, and there is no telling what will happen in a convention of over 500 delegates and with many influences at work.
The primaries will be held next Wednesday, and the convention on Thursday.

GETTING TO WORK

Guatemalan Ants Go Right After the Cotton Boll Weevil.

Washington, July 16.—O. F. Cook, the discoverer of the Guatemalan boll weevil-eating ant, has wired the department of agriculture from Texas that the new ants are destroying cotton boll worms and are attacking similar injurious insects with even greater avidity than they do the boll weevil. Another important fact is that the ants do not injure at all the ladybird larvae, which are beneficial insects.

Mr. Cook reports that the agricultural value of the ants now depends chiefly upon acclimatization and rapidity of propagation.
These matters are being investigated.

Fatal Fourth of July Injuries.

Indianapolis, July 16.—Two reports of fatal lockjaw cases as a result of Fourth of July celebrations have been made to the coroner. Two boys have died from this cause. William Holzer, fourteen years old, injured himself in the hand by the accidental discharge of a Flobert rifle. Tetanus or lockjaw, resulted and he died in great agony. The other case was that of Herbert Snell, fifteen years old, who was injured in the hand by the premature explosion of a cannon cracker. In both cases the wounds were dressed and the boys had, apparently, fully recovered before the terrible disease developed.

Boy Killed by a Horse.

Hartford City, Ind., July 15.—Arthur Chaffee, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Wells Chaffee, is dead as the result of being trampled on by a horse.

HARD TO FIND OUT

Reported Japanese Repulse at Port Arthur Still In Doubt.

CONFLICTING RUMORS

St. Petersburg Claims to Have Armatory Reports While Tokio Utterly Discredits Story.

Affairs in the Far East Seem to Be Settling Down For Some Decisive Action.

Tokio, July 16.—The St. Petersburg story of a Japanese repulse with heavy casualties at Port Arthur July 10 is wholly discredited in Tokio, where no such reports have been received. It is believed that the story originated in Shanghai.

St. Petersburg, July 16.—The war office announces the receipt of a dispatch from Port Arthur confirming the report that the Japanese sustained considerable losses on July 11, the exact particulars of which have not yet been ascertained. According to the dispatch the Russians recaptured all the positions lately taken by the Japanese.

Shanghai, July 16.—A naval engagement took place Friday off Port Arthur.
Shanghai, July 16.—The Chicago Daily News dispatch boat Fawn has been seized by the Russians and towed into Port Arthur.

CAN'T ACCOUNT FOR IT

Russians Puzzled by Lack of Further News From Port Arthur.

St. Petersburg, July 16.—The lack of further official news regarding the engagement at Port Arthur on the night of July 10 is very puzzling. That the Japanese were heavily defeated is not doubted here, but in the absence of further information the extent of the disaster that befell them is beginning to be seriously questioned.

Definite news has been received from Viceroy Alexieff's headquarters at Mukden that the week before the engagement at Port Arthur, Major General Fock administered a severe defeat on July 4 and July 5, driving them from the heights that command Lusan-tan Pass, with a loss of 2,000. This is considered here as proof that there has been heavy fighting before the fortress of Port Arthur and as making the silence of Tokio regarding it all the more significant.

The Report is Repeated.

St. Petersburg, July 16.—A special dispatch from Ta Tche Kiao dated July 14 repeats the account of the attempted storming of Port Arthur on July 10, and says that the Russians assumed the offensive and attacked with the bayonet. The Japanese retired in the wildest disorder. The Chinese estimate the Japanese losses at 22,000. The spirit of the dispatch says, is sinking as the result of the Port Arthur defeat.

Ta Tche Kiao Sticks to It.

Ta Tche Kiao, July 14.—(Delayed in transmission).—The latest reports regarding the storming of Port Arthur July 10 place the Japanese losses in killed or wounded at 25,000 and those of the Russians at 5,500. The Japanese retired and the Russians occupied the position. The Japanese have now changed their frontal position and a big battle is expected at the eastern portion of the defenses owing to the Japanese turning movement.

All Quiet About Mukden.

Mukden, July 16.—All is quiet in the direction of the Russian left flank. The population is following peaceful occupations and working in the fields. It seems certain that the Japanese right flank is weak. According to the Chinese the Japanese are making great preparations for the coming rains, which are due in earnest about July 31. The rains heretofore have been merely chance downpours.

The Czar Warmly Welcomed.

Tamboff, Russia, July 16.—Emperor Nicholas arrived here yesterday and accepted bread and salt from a deputation representing the Jewish community. After service at the cathedral he reviewed the troops. On leaving Tamboff his majesty was enthusiastically cheered by the people assembled in the streets.

No Figures Are Given.

St. Petersburg, July 16.—A Russian correspondent in the field repeats the story of a Japanese disaster at Port Arthur July 10, but does not add any details except the statement that after the repulse the Japanese fled in great disorder, pursued by the Russians.

Wisconsin Village Destroyed.

Ironwood, Wis., July 16.—The village of Kimball, including the Kimball & Clark

CONFIDENCE IS FIRM

Good Results Being Looked For by the Business World.

New York, July 16.—Bradstreet's weekly review of trade today says: Movements in trade, industry and speculation give an irregular appearance to the general business situation. Distributive trades industry is still quiet and even dull, awaiting clearer views of the crop situation. Damage to the winter wheat crop by heavy rains is admitted, though alleged to be exaggerated. Disorganization in the meat slaughtering industry has followed a strike which, if not settled, as now seems likely, contains much power for evil. All meat prices have been advanced and cattle shipments checked. Railway gross earnings for the fiscal year will show an increase over the best previous years, but net results are less clearly defined, with the question whether an increase or decrease will be shown, still in doubt. The general undertone is one of confidence, good results being looked for by the business world from an expected large volume of fall trade.

CAMERAS ARE BARRED

Judge Parker Tired of Having His Picture Taken.

Esopus, N. Y., July 16.—Judge Parker has drawn the line on the photographers.
He announces that this will be the last day of promiscuous photographing of him and his family. "I reserve the right," he said laughingly, "to put my hands in my pockets and assume comfortable attitudes without being overlastingly afraid that I shall be snapped by some fellow with a camera."

Esopus has been fairly overrun with photographers, who have haunted the judge's footsteps and have photographed not only himself, but everybody and everything connected with him or his daily life. Today a series of group pictures were taken of the judge and his family, quietly grouped on the lawn near the house.

Prisoners Make Their Escape.

Chillicothe, Ohio, July 16.—Immediately after religious services in the jail here yesterday afternoon, five prisoners escaped from the institution, but four of them were soon recaptured. As the Rev. Dr. Thompson was preparing to leave the building, William Woods, a colored prisoner, knocked him down and rushed out of the jail through the door which had been opened for the minister. He was followed by four of the prisoners, who were soon retaken.

Van Gorder Mystery Solved.

Belmont, N. Y., July 16.—The Van Gorder mystery has been solved by a complete confession made in open court by Pasquale Olive and Sabastiano Pizzatti and confirmed by Giuseppe Versace, he being the second of the suspects to be tried. Gorgia, the first man tried, was convicted. According to the confession, the murder of John E. Van Gorder and his half-sister, Anna Farnham, was committed by Gorgia and Versace.

Plumbers' Strike Ordered.

New York, July 16.—Strikes of the plumbers, gas-fitters and steam-fitters and helpers have been ordered on all the contracts of the New York general contractors in outside cities to force a system of exchange of cards with unions in outside cities. The buildings affected are in Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Newark, Birmingham, Jersey City and Princeton.

The Australian commonwealth government proposes to class consumptives among prohibited immigrants.

invented is the Dr. White Electric
